

CURLEY Stunned, SILENT

GOVERNOR ILL. SHOWS GRIEF

Stunned by his defeat at the hands of 34-year-old Senator-elect Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., Governor Curley went into seclusion today.

Reporters caught up with him just once. That was shortly before noon, when he returned to his Jamaicaaway home after an absence of three hours.

Head hunched down in the tuxedo collar, an anxious-looking man with heavy eyes, he made his way to the side door of his home from his automobile.

"Governor, could we have just a few moments with you?" he was asked.

"No," he answered, without turning his head.

Under his arm were stacks of yellow and white campaign paper. Whether they were minutes of the state release or not was anybody's guess.

Callers Banned

His chauffeur turned to reporters and said:

"The governor will see no one today. There will be no callers. That's final."

James Roosevelt, son of the President, had called him on "Senator Curley" in another "victory" statement.

It was reported that the son of the President had told the governor how much he liked him, and that the crucial days of his campaign were still a few days off.

Curley had probably kept him on his toes.

Dr. Martin English, family physician, had ordered the governor to bed last night at 9:30, remarking he had a "high fever." He told him to go to bed today.

ROOSEVELT N. Y. LEAD 1,143,723

New York, Nov. 4 (AP)—Presidential election returns for New York state to 1,143,723 votes today as returns were tabulated from all but 300 election districts. His lead over Gov. Landon was the greatest ever recorded in the state's history.

The county with 800 out of a total of 800 districts unaffected. It is complete, stood: Roosevelt 3,800,000; Landon 2,600,000.

Gov. Herbert Lehman, Democratic incumbent, secured a third term, but a plurality of 50,000 votes (75,000 for Mr. Lehman, Democrat, 257,000; William F. Buckley, Republican, 228,400).

The President's election in New York City was 1,000,000.

The count, Roosevelt 5,000,000; Landon 4,000,000. Governor Lehman's plurality in the state is 21,238. The count: Lehman 1,212,338; Buckley 475,174. The tabulations for both the governorship and the presidency were complete.

In the new legislature the Republic will have 76 members; the Democrats 74 for the Democrats; in the senate the count will be 23 Republicans and 30 Democrats.

G. O. P. GAINS 3 IN CONGRESS

Tipple, former mayor of Chicago.

The other seat taken over by the Republicans is in the second district where Charles T. Cullen of Springfield, a former assistant district attorney, defeated Mrs. Agnes C. Davies, former teacher and housewife. She was elected by the National Union for Mutual Justice.

Major George J. Fisher of the Republican, who served in the army of the late A. Piatt Andrew of Connecticut, later defeated John C. Taff of Salem, Democrat, with the added designation of "Honorable Senator Justice."

The change in the next Congress will be 35 Republicans and 30 Democrats.

Allen T. Trumbull of West Brookfield, veteran Republican Congressman, defeated Owen Johnson, author of "Blackbirds." The withdrawal of an endorsement to the Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, the candidacy of Congressman William P. Cullen of Fair Haven, and the support of President Roosevelt failed to appreciably affect Cullen in the election. He was opposed by former Representative G. P. Nichols, Fair of Seneca, Republican.

The other sitting congressmen re-elected were John D. Hodge (R) of Worcester, Edith Neffs Rogers (R) of Lowell, Arthur D. Haynes (D) of Somerville, George Hodges (D) of Boston, John W. McPherson of South Boston, Richard H. Wagoner of Miami, James Murray Jr. of North Attleboro, Charles L. Gifford of Barnstable, and Joseph H. Clegg (D) of Chelsea.

President Greeters Neighbors in Victory Demonstration

Wearing the familiar "Roosevelt smile," the nation's victorious Chief Executive is shown with his son, Franklin, Jr., and Mrs. Roosevelt as they greeted Hyde Park, N. Y., neighbors in a victory demonstration last night. There was a torchlight procession to the Roosevelt family home, and there the President and members of his family met the happy neighbors and joined with them in a celebration of the landslide victory at the polls.

Few can measure the depth of this elderly woman's happiness today as she reads the glad news that her son, Franklin Delano Roosevelt, has been re-elected President of the United States. The President and his mother, Mrs. Sara Delano Roosevelt, are shown as they arrived at the polling station in Hyde Park, N. Y., to vote.

Bartolini Counsel Assignment Plea By Zottolis

Albany—Judge B. Bartolini and Roscoe A. Zottolis of Boston today sought appointment as counsel for Oliver V. Bartolini, indicted in the handsome slaying of Mrs. Glenn Ansell of Westbury.

"They filed their petition in Norfolk County Superior Court at Dedham. There also asked that they be allowed retention by the county for conducting the defense."

Judge Frederick W. French, presiding justice of the Norfolk County court, set a hearing on the petition for late today at Suffolk county courthouse in Ponkapogon square.

Bartolini was indicted for murder after having been held as a fugitive from a nation-wide search for a long time, but for John shot and for body dismembered. Police are still hunting for Mrs. Albert Lavoie, placed at Mrs. Ansell's house.

LONDON SMILES OVER DEFEAT; BACK ON JOB

By KENNETH T. DOWNS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

Triples, Ky., Nov. 4.—Ernesting said his better disappointment at being defeated for President of the United States, Governor Alfred M. Landon today plunged back into his duties as chief executive of Kansas.

With a cheerful smile, the Governor was on the job at the State House before 9 a. m.

He only took sufficient time out to discuss a possible duck-hunting trip with his long-expected friend and secretary, Winford Mayberry.

"I don't care to take time to talk duck hunting without having a guilty conscience from now on, can't you?" he grinned.

"I have no further comment to make on the election," he smiled, blowing a stream of cigarette smoke toward the ceiling.

"What are your immediate plans?" he was asked.

"Well, there's a lot of state business to be done here," he said.

PHOENIX HAMILTON

He said he already had held a telephone conversation with Republican Chairman John T. St. Hamilton in Chicago, and said that Hamilton will come to Topeka for a conference with him as soon as the affairs of the cabinet committee are cleared up in Chicago this week.

"Did you discuss future plans for the party with Hamilton?" a reporter asked.

"I wouldn't want to discuss that,"

"Do you plan to continue Hamilton as national chairman?"

"I wouldn't want to discuss that."

A batch of some 200 telegrams from all parts of the country greeted the Governor. That was all there was to him in regard to the fact he was a hopeful candidate for President.

POLITICIANS ARREST

The Governor might have received a second, perhaps, laugh at the fact his office was completely deserted, except for his employees and a couple of early rising reporters.

There was not a single cigar-smoking politician in sight. It was as though they had all been caught in some strange and devastating time.

After whisking through the mass of telegrams, the Governor smiled a very smile at some of them. The Governor smiled at the fact that he was the only man in the state to be elected to the office of Governor.

The Governor was really stunned and deeply disappointed in his defeat.

Borah Survives Democratic Sweep

Butte, Idaho, Nov. 4.—Senator William B. Borah, "The Great American Senator," was the only Republican survivor today in a vote which swept the Democratic Party into all state offices and gave Idaho its four electoral votes to Roosevelt.

The thousands of votes of 30 years in the United States Senate, notwithstanding his Democratic rival, Governor C. Rex Hoot.

WHAT, YOU ASK, CAN BE DIFFERENT ABOUT ANY OPTICAL SERVICE? DON'T THEY ALL OFFER THE SAME SERVICES AND MAKE THE SAME STYLE GLASSES?

Yes, Buhl service is different. True you may have your eyes examined, lenses ground, or frame fitted from most any optician. That is the optician's function. But at Buhl's these services are rendered with a painstaking accuracy that sets them apart. The difference lies in the completeness and thoroughness of the Buhl Optical Co. Buhl serves more than 100,000 patrons annually. No ready-made stock lenses are taken from a shelf and merely shaped to your desire at Buhl's. JOHN NANCE GARNER

FRANKLIN DELANO ROOSEVELT

VOTE TO BANISH TOWN BARS

Bundled at many a small community, throughout the state, will have to do their public drinking after, somewhere else than in their home towns, early abolishment of the vote on the liquor issue.

There appeared to be a definite trend, outside the cities, toward abolition of "neighborhood" bars and liquor dispensaries.

In a considerable number of small communities, although here and there liquor sales by the place were banned, approval of voters was given in favor of package stores.

Milton was one of the first towns reported to have taken this action.

Where there were no town liquor licenses at home and no liquor dispensaries, but approved package sales of absolute beverages for home consumption.

"DAY OF REST" FOR ROOSEVELT

Just that all of us Americans will now pull together for the common good. I send you every good wish."

Mr. Roosevelt planned to rest here in Hyde Park until Thursday or Friday night. He has an engagement in Washington on Saturday to unveil a memorial to John Jay, President of the United States, during which the President, as then assistant secretary of state, had in contact with the second wife, Fritzsche.

It was about 2:30 a. m. when President Roosevelt finally retired.

PROUDS ACCLAIM

Earlier when the election results were coming in, Mr. Roosevelt had received an outpouring of his home from a crowd of enthusiastic supporters from his home community.

Appearing at 10:45 p. m. on the arm of his son, Franklin Jr., with his mother, wife, and children, who were relatives and intimate friends in his wife, Mr. Roosevelt and family.

"It looks as if we are going to have one of the greatest sweeps ever heard of in the history of the United States."

It appears that this movement has extended into every section of the country, not only the South, but the Pacific Coast, the central states, the East and New England.

PLANS VACATION

"I hope in the next few years, with the worst of the emergency over, that I can spend a little more time in Hyde Park."

Following the President's return to Washington it was expected he would start almost immediately on a vacation cruise aboard a naval vessel. He had intended before election day it might carry him back to the Bahamas where he spent his spring fishing trip, or off the coast of Mexico. There were reports also that he intended that he might cruise south to Rio de Janeiro.

Thought of cruise failed to interest Mr. Roosevelt today, however. He had won a smashing victory and it was taking most of his time to discuss the congratulations. Many were delivered in person. Thousands telegraphed their approval.

"These facts accepted by eminent medical authorities!"

A group of distinguished doctors sought to find out for themselves whether the differences in cigarette manufacture had any relation to coughs due to smoking.

They made tests with Philip Morris Cigarettes, and with cigarettes made by the ordinary method of manufacture.

These tests* proved conclusively that on changing to Philip Morris, coughs due to smoking cleared completely in 3 out of every 4 cases.

WINGS OVER NEW ENGLAND

THANKS to modern air transportation New England has become one great neighborly community. You may wing your way from the Boston Airport at eight-fifty in the morning. One hour and thirty minutes later the silvery ribbon of the Penobscot River guides you to your landing at Bangor. You have covered the two hundred and twelve miles at better than two miles a minute, with stops at Portland, Augusta and Waterville. Yet it has seemed nothing more than the gradual unfolding of beautiful New England countryside. Burlington, Vermont, one hour and a half; Concord, New Hampshire, and Providence, Rhode Island, about half an hour each; Hartford, Connecticut, just over an hour; New York, a mere eighty-four minutes—indeed the magic carpet is a reality!

Compare these daily miracles of modern transportation with the tedious travel schedules of a century ago. We like to think that our banking service has made comparable strides in the same period. You may judge for yourself by opening a checking account at whichever of our twenty-four offices is most convenient to you. We invite you to make it your banking headquarters.

CAMERA STUDIES OF VICTORIOUS CHIEF EXECUTIVE

VICTORIOUS!—President Franklin Delano Roosevelt who, by the will of the people, has been elected to serve a second term as President of the United States. The President is shown here as he addressed a huge gathering at Pittsburgh, during height of campaign.

"WE'RE IN AGAIN!"—This scene shows President Franklin D. Roosevelt holding aloft the hand of Vice-President John Nance Garner as both received the plaudits of a crowd of 100,000 in Franklin Field, at the climax of the 1936 Democratic national convention. Similar scene was being enacted today as both men were informed of their victory at the polls.

MEMORABLE BOSTON VISIT—The nation's Chief Executive is shown here as he talked to some 200,000 persons on Boston Common, one of the largest crowds ever assembled on the historic grounds. Standing by the President's side is Governor James M. Curley.

AS PRESIDENT SPOKE AT JOHNSTOWN—Here's an excellent close-up of President Franklin D. Roosevelt shown as he talked to thousands at Johnstown, Pa., first stop on his swing after Chief Justice Hughes, through the eastern and western flood areas.

A PLEASING SMILE graces the face of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt who, by her husband's victory at the polls, will have the honor of being the nation's First Lady for four more years.

"SMILE, SMILE, SMILE!"—President Roosevelt and Governor Herbert Lehman of New York, as they joined members of the American Legion in song, at the Democratic convention.

"I SOLEMNLY SWEAR . . ."—Impressive scene taken on the steps of Capitol on March 4, 1933, as President Franklin D. Roosevelt, in the presence of Chief Justice Hughes, became the thirty-second President of the United States. He is shown repeating the Presidential oath.

OFF FOR CAPITOL—Former President Herbert Hoover and President Franklin D. Roosevelt shown as they rode to the White House for inauguration ceremonies on March 4, 1933.

REBEL CANNON POUND AWAY AT TERROR-RIVEN MADRID

By THOMAS A. LOANER

Madrid, Nov. 4.—We were born to liberal ideas. A Madrid liberal actually was a very liberal person. He was then even to have a "sensible" lady from Birmingham throw shells at the entrance of the capital's main and Madrid could be said to be the cannon explosion.

QUINCY BOY, 4, DIES IN FALL

Quincy, Ill., Nov. 4.—A four-year-old boy, Quincy, died today after falling from a tree in the yard of his home. The boy was found by his mother, Mrs. Mary Quincy, who was sitting on the porch. The boy was found lying on the ground, and his mother ran to his aid. He was taken to the hospital, but died shortly after.

Lucky for You — It's a Light Smoke!

Even After Midnight — A CLEAN TASTE
Too many have been smoking cigarettes in the middle of the night. They find that Lucky's leave a clean taste in the throat. They smoke a Light Smoke.

For a Clear Throat After a Late Party

The cigarette that leaves your throat free and clear on party nights will also leave it free and clear every night. So, whether it's a "big date" or "early to bed," protect the delicate membranes of your throat! Reach for a light smoke—a Lucky. You'll get the finest tobacco money can buy—but free of certain irritants nature conceals in even the most perfect specimen of raw tobacco. Remember, these irritants are OUT of your Lucky Strike. "Toasting" takes them out. A light smoke gives your taste a thrill... and gives your throat protection!

NEWS FLASH! ★★

Memphis Columnist Prints Weekly Forecast for "Sweepstakes"

Harry Martin, well known Memphis columnist, has added a special feature to his column. Each week he predicts the winners in your Lucky Strike "Sweepstakes" and so far he's been right one time in three. "I'll take a small bet on the back for that 355 betting average," says Mr. Martin. "and we're ready to give in to you, congratulations, Mr. Martin."

Have you entered yet? Have you won your delicious Lucky Strike? There's music on the air. Tune in "Your Hit Parade" — Wednesday and Saturday evenings. Listen, judge and compare the tunes — then try Your Lucky Strike "Sweepstakes."

And if you're not already smoking Luckies, buy a pack today and try them. Maybe you've been missing something.

More About "Swing":

A clown, dressed as a clown, was complying to a hotel lounge, creating the next of his room, as John P. Medbury is best.

"It's too small," he said, comparing it to his fist and big enough to swing a club.

'Then, I wrote a letter to the manager. I'd take up some other form of exercise. And the first "exercise" tune, a commercial jingles was "They're Having Danny Deever in the Morning."

Once Over Lightly:

Periscoping Over the Street Mobs:

Gratitude Lawrence, unrecognized as she emerged from a Tremont street shop. Miss Lawrence may have been only counter shopping as a complete page of the "Tonight at 8:30" program tells that a London designer for whom the Lawrence was drafted, both on and off the screen, had just designed a gown for her. The gown was a purple suit and a crimson hat of velvet. This column is told that only a very, very smart dresser can mix these shades in one ensemble. Miss Lawrence's town equipment was an English-made car with New York license plates and a pair of the two women with her sat in front with the chauffeur.
